

Ayleen is originally from Colombia and has over 20 years of experience in office management, especially Property and HOA management. She lives in North Port with her beloved family, including her husband, three amazing sons, and furry friend, Boris. She is passionate about crocheting and fishing. She is attending State College of Florida to get a degree in paralegal studies. Her ultimate goal is to work with and help the immigrant community.