

Right to Read: All Books for All People Festival

Saturday, February 24, 2024

It was a great day for the first major event of the Social Justice Alliance of the Florida Suncoast. (sjafs.org) The weather was beautiful and the crowds kept coming all day, an estimated 800 attendees.

Folks of all ages came:

- ✓ to learn about the Social Justice Alliance of the Florida Suncoast
- ✓ to listen to speakers.
- ✓ to participate in the open panel discussion.
- ✓ to listen to the music.
- ✓ to hear local authors read and to purchase their books.
- ✓ to hear stories.
- ✓ to get a free banned book. (We gave out over 500!)
- ✓ to participate in the kids' programs and games.
- ✓ to support the fight against censorship.

Thank you!

- to our member organizations who joined together to organize the day.
- to our sponsors and donors
- to our excellent speakers
- to our vendors who shared information, food, books, and merchandise.
- to our entertaining musicians and storytellers
- to our hard-working volunteers - we couldn't have done it without you!
